

ORDERS FOR HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR MINOR CHILD(REN)
NAMED IN THE CHILD SUPPORT ORDER
(Ohio Revised Code sections 3119.30 et seq.)

The parties are hereby notified and it is further ORDERED:

A. The party who is required to provide health insurance coverage shall provide to the other, not later than 30 days after the issuance of this order, information regarding the benefits, limitations, and exclusions of the coverage, copies of any insurance forms necessary to receive reimbursement, payment, or other benefits under the coverage, and a copy of any necessary insurance cards (R.C. 3119.32).

B. Unless a name, address, and telephone number are provided below for the person to be reimbursed by the insurer for costs paid, the health insurance provider shall continue making payment for services directly to any health care provider in accordance with the applicable health insurance policy, contract, or plan (R.C. 3119.32).

Name: _____ NONE _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

C. Not later than 30 days after issuance of this order, the party who is required to provide health insurance coverage for the children shall designate the children as covered dependents under any health insurance policy, contract, or plan for which the person contracts (R.C. 3119.32).

D. The employer of the person required to obtain health insurance coverage is required to release to the other parent, any person subject to an order issued under section 3109.19 of the Revised Code, or the child support enforcement agency on written request any necessary information on the health insurance coverage, including the name and address of the health plan administrator and any policy, contract, or plan number, and to otherwise comply with section 3119.32 of the Revised Code and any order or notice issued under section 3119.32.

E. If the person required to obtain health care insurance coverage for the children subject to this child support order obtains new employment, the agency shall comply with the requirements of section 3119.34 of the Revised Code, which may result in the issuance of a notice requiring the new employer to take whatever action is necessary to enroll the children in private health care insurance coverage provided by the new employer (R.C. 3119.32).

F. Any employer who receives a copy of an order or notice relating to provision of health insurance coverage is required to notify the child support enforcement agency of any change in or the termination of the health insurance coverage that is maintained pursuant to the order or notice (R.C. 3119.364).

G. If the person required to obtain health insurance coverage pursuant to a child support order issued in accordance with statute does not obtain the required coverage within 30 days after the order is issued, the child support enforcement agency shall notify the court that issued the child support order in writing of the failure of the person to comply with the child support order (R.C. 3119.43).

H. Whoever violates a court child support order issued accordance with section 3119.30 of the Revised Code may be punished as for contempt under Chapter 2705 of the Revised Code (R.C. 3119.44), and the court may consider multiple violations in modifying the support amount (R.C. 3119.45).

I. Either the obligee or the obligor under a court child support order may file a motion with the court that issued the order requesting that the court modify the order with regard to health insurance coverage for the children who are the subject of the order (R.C. 3119.46) or that the court modify the support amount to meet a child's medical needs (R.C. 3119.49).

J. An obligor or obligee who fails to comply with a child support order issued in accordance with section 3119.30 of the Revised Code is liable to the other for any medical expenses incurred as a result of the failure to comply with the order (R.C. 3119.56).

K. Upon receipt of notice by the child support enforcement agency that private health insurance coverage is not available at a reasonable cost, cash medical support shall be paid in the amount as determined by the child support computation worksheets in section 3119.022 or 3119.023 of the Revised Code, as applicable. The child support enforcement agency may change the financial obligations of the parties to pay child support in accordance with the terms of the court or administrative order and cash medical support without a hearing or additional notice to the parties (R.C. 3119.32).
